BEST Life Short Term Disability

Group Sizes 5+

BEST Life Short Term Disability is designed to provide coverage for non-work-related injuries or sickness. We offer a variety of options to meet the needs of your employer groups:

- Create your own employer-sponsored or voluntary plan.
- Add maternity or partial disability benefits.
- Increased benefits available for groups with more than 50 employees enrolling.

Flexibility on Voluntary and Employer-Sponsored Plans

Creating your own short term disability plan is easy. By selecting the benefits you want, you can provide your clients with more choices and flexibility.

Maternity Coverage (Optional)

Eligible employees can use their short term disability benefits when they take maternity leave.

Partial Disability Coverage (Optional)

This benefit provides employees an incentive to return to work by paying them the full benefit amount in addition to their current weekly earnings.

Eligible employees for partial disability coverage include:

- Employees able to perform some but not all of their substantial duties.
- Employees that are earning no less than 20% of their pre-disability weekly earnings.

Partial Disability payments:

- Paid for a maximum of twelve consecutive weeks.
- The combined period of time benefits are payable may not exceed the maximum period of payments for the plan.
- Total earnings may not exceed 80% of the employee's pre-disability weekly earnings.

The Fine Print

Available States

AR, DC, HI, ID, IL, IN, KY, MO, MS, NE, NM, OH, PA, SC, SD, TX, UT and WY.

Recurrence

If an employee returns to work and has a recurrent disability, the disability will be treated as part of the prior claim and will waive the elimination period if:

1. The employee was continuously insured.
2. The recurrent disability occurs within 14 days of the end of the prior claim.

Weekly benefits will be based on weekly earnings reported at the time of the prior claim.

Employee Effective Date

Insurance will take effect on the later of:

1. The date the employer group becomes effective if initial applications are received within 31 days of this date.
2. The first day of the calendar month following the date a full-time employee completes the waiting period as elected by the employer. An application must be received within 31 days of this day.
3. If the application is received after the 31st day of eligibility and evidence of insurability is provided, coverage will take effect on the first day of the month following approval.

Evidence of Insurability

Required for:

- Groups without previous coverage.
- Employees that enroll after the initial 31-day eligibility period and enroll in a plan where the employer is contributing less than 100%.

Exclusions and Limitations

The plan does not cover any disabilities caused by, contributed to, or resulting from:

- Loss of professional license, occupational license or certification.
- Intentionally self-inflicted injuries or attempting suicide, regardless of mental capacity.
- Active participation in a riot or insurrection, or in attempting to commit or commission of a felony or crime convicted under federal or state law.
- While incarcerated.
- Resulting from war, declared or undeclared or any act of war or terrorism.
- Voluntarily electing a surgical procedure, elective cosmetic or plastic surgery, except when required due to injury or sickness.
- Occupational injury or sickness.

Ineligible Employees

The following are considered ineligible if:

- Full-time employees not actively at work at the initial effective date.
- Non-resident aliens.
- Consultants, directors or stockholders.
- Employees employed on a temporary, seasonal or part-time basis, including 1099s.
- Employees subject to collective bargaining agreements.
